

Job Title: Corporate International Tax Manager
Department: Tax Department
Job Posted: June 9, 2021

Job Description:

The Corporate Tax Manager will work directly with the Corporate Tax Senior Manager. The position primarily involved the preparation and coordination of the US international portion of the Company's US federal income tax return and the computation and review of the Company's US international tax provision (ASC 740). The Corporate Tax Manager will also be involved with the research, development, implementation and defense of tax strategies designed to increase EPS and cash flow. Interested applicants should send a cover email and resume in PDF format to rgarretson@escotechnologies.com

For information about our collection and use of personal information relating to California residents, please see our HR privacy notice available on our Careers page.

Responsibilities:

- US International Tax Compliance
- Tax Planning Assistance
- ASC 740 Reporting of Non-US Operations
- Transfer Pricing Assistance
- Non-US Tax Matters

Minimum Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in Accounting (MST and/or CPA is a plus)
- 4+ years minimum relevant international tax experience
- Must have intellectual curiosity with continued desire and ability to learn and grow
- Advanced research and data analytic skills
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills, both verbal and written
- Outstanding project management skills
- Must be proficient with a variety of technology solutions including tax preparation software. Microsoft office and tax research skills
- Must be proficient with a variety of technology solutions including tax preparation software, Microsoft office and tax research tools

This position is not eligible for relocation assistance.

ESCO is an Equal Opportunity Employer and all qualified applications will receive consideration for employment without regard to the applicant's race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, status as a protected veteran, disability, genetic information, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law.